

Social Media Content

Use on Facebook, Instagram or LinkedIn during Waste & Recycling Workers Week. Don't forget the #SWProfessionals2023 @SWANA-Georgia Chapter.

- We are Solid Waste Professionals #SWProfessionals2023@SWANA-Georgia Chapter
- I am a Solid Waste Professional #SWProfessionals2023@SWANA-Georgia Chapter
- My job has value, and I am a Solid Waste Professional. #SWProfessionals2023@SWANA-Georgia Chapter
- I collect your trash and am a Solid Waste Professional#SWProfessionals2023@SWANA-Georgia Chapter
- I work at the landfill and am a Solid Waste Professional #SWProfessionals2023@SWANA-Georgia Chapter
- I pick up litter and am a Solid Waste Professional #SWProfessionals2023@SWANA-Georgia Chapter
- Celebrate Waste & Recycling Workers Week! #SWProfessionals2023 @SWANA-Georgia Chapter
- Did you know that waste and recyclable material collectors are in the top ten most dangerous jobs in the United States? Help keep us safe. #SWProfessionals2023@SWANA-Georgia Chapter
- Picture or video of Mayor or Elected Official holding or reading the proclamation for Waste & Recycling Workers Week.
- Caption this? Find some fun photos of your sanitation/solid waste workers and ask your followers to add a caption.
- Complete the Solid Waste Superlatives for your staff and post the outcome on your social media pages. Make it fun!
- Catch solid waste employees in the act of servicing their community and post on your social media accounts.
- Find the SWANA Georgia Chapter Facebook and Instagram frame to use during the week and encourage followers to use the frame with worker photos.
- Record sanitation/solid waste workers in your community stating why they are a Solid Waste Professionals.